

Looking for a FREE Summer Experience for your children?

Friendship Theatre Presents...

WHO WE ARE

Sofia Yaker, Ryan Benvenuto and Scarlett Dellacona are Lynbrook students who have been a part of the Girls Scouts of America since Kindergarten. Now, as we transition to high school, we are looking to complete our Silver Award project, the second highest award a Girl Scout Cadette can earn. Attempting to earn this award has opened our eyes to issues in our community and ways we can change them. All three of us have individually found that our experience in theatre has paved a road of confidence, friendships, individuality, and acceptance.

SPONSORS AND FEES

Thanks to the Lynbrook Public Schools, we can make this dream a reality by offering an opportunity, completely free of charge!

BACKGROUND STORY

We came up with the idea of Friendship Theatre when exploring ways we can help our Lynbrook Community. Today, more than ever, children are feeling the pressures and stress of everyday life. The pressures of being accepted, being liked, and being who you are can sometimes feel overwhelming. We wanted to provide a place where all students, regardless of age, background, or academic standing can have a voice. What better place to do this than in a theatre workshop program completely run by students: student producers, student directors and student actors. Our project is a theatre initiative geared to unify all students through the power of performance. Theatre has helped each of us meet new people, express ourselves in new ways, and gain an overall sense of accomplishment and confidence. We want to extend this opportunity to all students and work together with them to aid them in finding their voices through theatre. The culmination of our practice will be a brief performance highlighting all the students and their efforts.

Don't let them be discouraged about being shy or not having enough time to memorize their lines. The goal of this is to have FUN! Also, while this is a fully student run production, a parental supervisor will always be on site.

Parents are welcome to stay at rehearsals as well if they would like.
